

Introduction:

Held Hostage was founded by Tom Collier in 1984 on the premise of helping people through their music. Fast forward to 2017: they have joined forces with legendary rock producer/drummer Carl Canedy and Emmy award-winning artist/Navy Veteran Jay Haiden to help Veterans through sales of their new song/video "Show Me The Way Back Home." The song also features special guest vocalist Joe Lynn Turner (Deep Purple, Rainbow, Joe Lynn Turner Band).

In the interest of complete transparency, Held Hostage has set up a separate CD BABY/Amazon/iTunes account. The sales figures, percentages, etc. in that account will be made available upon request to any and all supporters of this project.

Held Hostage is proudly endorsed by Vietnam Veterans of America, Chapter 704 and Victory for Vets.

Mission:

For the band Held Hostage to donate $2.00 from the sale of each CD of their song "Show Me the Way Back Home" to Veteran's organizations, and work to increase awareness of the extreme psychological challenges our Veterans experience as they transition back to civilian life.
